

SPRING 2015 LIBRARY WORKSHOPS

LIBRARY ANYWHERE

Learn how to access library services in person or remotely—book a study room, submit an interlibrary loan, or ask a research question. Learn about Open WorldCat and its app, and how to check other libraries nearby, as well as get checkout privileges at other libraries. Plus, learn about saving searches within the databases to rerun in the future.

2/23 (1:30-2:30PM)
3/12 (12:00-1:00PM)
4/6 (1:30-2:30PM)

2/26 (12:00-1:00PM)
3/16 (1:30-2:30PM)
4/9 (12:00-1:00PM)

OPEN TEXTBOOKS

The high cost of textbooks could be flagged as one of the problems of unaffordable higher education, so one alternative route is Open Textbooks. This workshop will focus on subjects where one can find and use these textbooks.

LIBRARY WEBSITE 101

Learn how to best utilize everything made available to you through the new library website. Learn about study guides, databases, study rooms, multimedia equipment and get an in-depth overview of what services the library offers through both the website and in-person interaction.

3/2 (1:30-2:30PM)
3/19 (12:00-1:00PM)
4/13 (1:30-2:30PM)

3/5 (12:00-1:00PM)
3/30 (1:30-2:30PM)
4/16 (12:00-1:00PM)

GOOGLE AND GOOGLE SCHOLAR

Explore the world's most popular search engine, including tools and tips to streamline your research process.

CITATION MADE EASIER

Learn how free reference management programs like Zotero and Mendeley, web-based services like EasyBib, and even tools already built into Microsoft Word can streamline the process of building proper citations in MLA, APA, ASA, and Chicago styles.

3/9 (1:30-2:30PM)
4/2 (12:00-1:00PM)
4/20 (1:30-2:30PM)

